

-----Original Message-----

From: Peter Kindred [REDACTED]
Sent: 29 July 2015 21:50
To: Jeni Jackson
Subject: New houses for Pyrford

My wife and I object most strongly to the proposal to build houses on both sides of Upshot Lane, which is presently green belt land.

One of the Government's stated purposes of green belt land is to prevent neighbouring towns merging into one another. This would extend Pyrford towards Guildford which contravenes the stated objectives.

Schools are already overcrowded and the narrow roads congested. This development would only exacerbate the situation.

Rosemary & Peter Kindred Sent from my iPad

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED - . This document has been security classified using the Government Protective Marking Scheme (GPMS).