Any other comments

It is shocking that these development plans are in such an advance stage and the local residents have only now been informed! The documentation provided by the council online simply obfuscates the matter and the issues at stake, in an attempt to bamboozle local people who will clearly oppose the council's plans. It seems that the council will simply not pay heed to the local people's say and I do hope that you take into account local people's objections to this project, which will surely harm their quality of life on the Barnsbury Estate during the developments and afterwards.
